The truth was... I wasn't mentally prepared for it until the bitter end...

No matter how much you guys murdered, I thought: it was only because we were part of D-Game.

But it didn't matter to you guys whether it was inside or outside of the game.

D-Game coerces players into killing each other.

I'd be pleased if someone outside this regulated game would condemn doing that.

Players have to do anything to survive.

The
answer's obvious.

Don't
even ask,
Boss.

You
with me, Ryuujir?

If
nobody else will do it,
then we have to.

Someone has to take out the trash.

Wha...!

How should I say it?
You're... rather predictable, aren't you?

He's just small fry!

Of course, mya~

Kaname doesn't have to fight something like this!

What the? What is this...?

Shuka, can I leave the rest to you?

Starting
now, it's Shukachan's turn!

Guah-

Do-
don't fuck
with me...!

Hey!
You're
mine, nya~

Oh boy,
it's just like how Kaname
said...

You
shitty amateur
...!!

Ah...!

I think there's no more than 10 Eighth members left in the warehouse-

Kaname-
san and Ryuji-
san are surrounded
...!!

What's
wrong?

We
still have the upper hand...!

That's right...! We were taken by surprise
earlier, but...

If we surround them and charge
them all
at once, they're
done
for...!!

No matter how good their guns are,
they're just two guys...!!

That damn
Kaname's
completely
careless...!
But, it was a perfect
surprise attack!!

Wrah
wrah!!
Have
a taste
of my
lead
...!!

Eat as much as you want!!

To begin with, it's not like his movements were particularly fast...

And it's not like he recklessly performed a Sigil attack like One-san does...

He just took action a little earlier than us...

But before I knew it...

He just used his gun and knife more accurately than us...

EVERYONE WAS KILLED...

Depending on how their fight's going
we may need to quickly intervene in the warehouse
too!

Sui-san!
Please tell me about the ongoing
situation!

Hi

Please
tell me about how the enemies are situated from what you know!

Just
what are Kaname-
san and Ryouji-san...
What's going on inside
the warehouse?

Sui-san respond!

After
these chains, I'm gonna mince
you up
...!!

For
a bitch puffing on airs like a queen, your chain attack
is too
obvious
...!!

Eh...?

Your Sigil
is too small fry..!!

That
said, who do you think you're talking to,
nya~?

Huh?
What did you say
just now?
I can't really hear you, you
know??

My Beelzebub
is a Skill
that freely
manipulates airspace! It's completely different from your crummy Skill that can only manipulate chains!!

If I
were to tune into the net, I could easily reach five metres or an extreme 10
metres, in an instant!

If I were to cut the air, there isn't a single thing in the world that I can't chop into pieces!

Right
now, I've got the biggest advantage!!
Stupid
bitch!!

By
coming here, you've entered the range of my Skill.
Beelzebub
...!!

From
there
begins Ore-san's
fun time
—!!

and during the time I'm falling, I'll find any openings
to rapidly attack and murder her body from the back!

I'll
leap two metres
above the girl's back.

Alley-
oop....!!

I'll
mince you
up....!!

At
this rate,
you'll soon
lose everything,
hm?

Point 4
has already been dealt
with~

The girl is recognized as Sunset Ravens' most powerful.

Bereaving her parents, she has no relatives or dependents in her second degree of kinship.

Player Name:
Shuka

Real Name:
Karino Shuka

Age: 16

It's uncertain to what extent she can manipulate other objects.

Her Sigi appears to be a powerful telekinetic type, and it's confirmed that she often manipulates chains to fight.

It's believed that you need to deal with her with either aerial bombing, or super long-range sniper fire.

What one should be wary of is her air mobility faculty through the use of her Sigi.

Just like a powerful tank being powerless to an attack helicopter attempting to take her on using the power of a foot soldier is foolish.

Next is Rain.

With an extremely unique "data processing" type Sigil, she takes extreme care when it comes to making contact.

She worked as a freelance informant under the alias of the "Analyst," but after she joined the clan, she ceased business.

Real Name:
Kashiwagi
Rein

Age: 13

Player Name:
Rain

she feels that if she is careless in making contact she may leak more personal intel than she anticipates

Looking at her track record as an informant, because she possesses the ability to accurately parse a player's abilities even with incomplete intel

There is intel that in combat she successfully shot a super long-range sniper round that went past 2,000 metres.

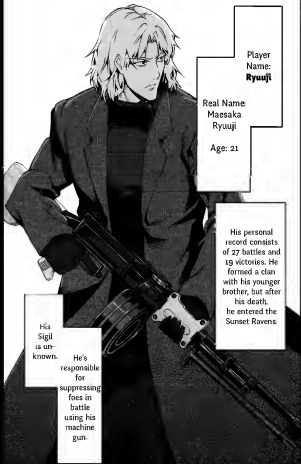

It's assumed that she applies her Sigil's data processing ability into her shooting

In battle she uses a sniper rifle

Ryuzaki and Saito...

Player
Name: Ryuuji

Real Name:
Maesaka Ryuuji

Age: 21

His personal record consists of 27 battles and 19 victories. He formed a clan
with his younger brother, but after his death, he entered the Sunset Ravens.

His Sigil
is unknown.

He's
responsible
for suppressing foes in battle using his machine
gun.

Player
Name:
Sui

Since she's an unmarked player, we are currently under investigation
to find out her personal identity.

and if we assume that ability encompasses
the internals
of living beings as well... Then it's a Sigil
which could be considered
fatal to every single living being.

She
possesses a Sigil that specializes in the manipulation
of water and ice,

Her
personal record in D-Game is two battles
and zero
victories.
She's not an aggressive
player,
but...

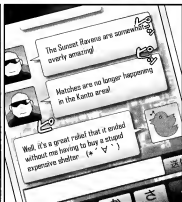

In regards to his Sigil, there are considerations that it is "apport," but this is still pending.

The one who commands this powerful force is called "Sudou Kaname." At present, he is the person requiring the greatest attention.

A champion player whose personal D-Game record consists of solely victories, he is also the sole victor of the Shibuya Treasure Hunt Event.

Moreover, both clans dispersed the D-Game item called "Clan Shelter" to ordinary players.

their allied clan, Danyou Boxing Club, immediately followed suit.

In response to Sunset Ravens' D-Game loss,

I'm going to report to my supervisor, stating that there should be a prioritized investigation with a full-time contact assigned to him hereafter.

Also, being the winner of the Battle Event, there's a strong possibility that he made contact with the D sponsors.

This is an extremely brilliant governing skill. The peculiarities of this "Sudou Kamekame" player are showing.

In a flash, D-Games have decreased in the Kanto area by over 90%.

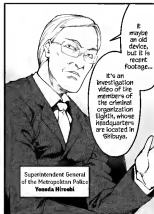

so I'll append this detail as a special matter.

there has been unconfirmed until that, an A-Class assassin, Lee Kaelian, has made contact with them.

And regarding the process for the investigation on the Sunset Ravens,

Until the issue about my father is cleared up, I don't intend on using that money.

Consult with the Lawyer-can once more-

It's okay,
Doctor.

Knowing that each and every other person with a bad heart is waiting.

And I wouldn't want to be the only one who uses lots of money to take another person's place in line.

Excuse me-

Thank you very much, Doctor.

Let me know whenever you change your mind.

Since I'll quickly handle the formalities.
